ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVE: 06-05 AGENCY ORGANIZATION, MISSION, PLANNING AND MANAGEMENT

TO: DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY CORRECTION EMPLOYEES

FROM: G. DAVID GUNTARP, DIRECTOR

SUPERSEDES: AD 06-03

PAGE 1

APPROVED: Signature on File

EFFECTIVE: April 1, 2006

- I. APPLICABILITY. This policy applies to all Department of Community Correction (DCC) employees.
- II. POLICY. DCC employees will participate in appropriate activities to establish plans, achieve the agency mission, pursue established goals and objectives, manage resources, and follow accounting and budgeting guidance. (4-ACRS-7D-03 and 4-ACRS-7D-05[P])
- III. AGENCY MISSION. The agency mission is “To enhance public safety by encouraging a crime-free lifestyle and providing cost-effective, evidence-based programs in the supervision and treatment of adult offenders.” (3-3008)
- IV. GUIDELINES. The following are planning, programming, and management responsibilities:

A. General Management/Operations.

- 1. The Director, Chief Deputy Director, Deputy and Assistant Directors, Administrators, Parole/Probation Managers, Center Supervisors, and others as permitted are the officials responsible for hiring, managing, promoting, and terminating staff, overseeing programs, budgeting, general management and accounting activities in their respective areas. In the absence of a Center Supervisor and when a situation requires, personnel actions, including those that affect an employee’s pay, may be taken by the Assistant Center Supervisor. The Treatment Administrator provides Center Supervisors with treatment program support. DCC’s management structure is depicted in organization charts found on the DCC public Website. (4-ACRS-7E-07[P])

2. All employees will follow State and DCC operational, accounting, and budgeting guidance. DCC efforts will support and be consistent with best practices and evidence-based programs and services.
3. The Director will meet at least monthly with all senior management personnel, department head and other key staff members as determined by the Director or other senior management personnel to discuss agency operations and other issues that need to be brought to the attention of management. (2-CO-1A-19)

B. Director.

1. Chief Executive Officer. The DCC Director, hired by the BOC, is the agency's chief executive officer with complete managerial authority.
2. Interstate Compact Roles. Arkansas law designates the DCC Director as Compact Administrator. The Compact Administrator serves as a member of the Arkansas Council for Interstate Adult Offender Supervision (Arkansas Council) and as an Arkansas Commissioner to the Interstate Commission. The Arkansas Council exercises oversight and advocacy concerning participation in Interstate Commission activities and performs other Council-determined duties including policy development concerning Arkansas compact operations and procedures. (3-3192)

C. Chief Deputy Director. The Chief Deputy Director is responsible for the following:

1. Facilitate annual development, progress reporting, review, and updates of agency long-range plans, goals, and mission, aligning time lines with agency planning and budgeting processes.
2. Review, update annually, publish, and make available to DCC employees the agency organization structure reflecting span of control, lines of authority, and communication channels. (4-ACRS-7D-03)
3. Facilitate collaboration and consultation with community interest groups, service agencies, colleges, and other criminal justice agencies on a continuing basis to enhance formulation, evaluation, and operation of organizational policies, procedures, and programs.
4. Participate directly or through the Management Team or BOC in federal, State, and regional planning efforts with criminal justice and other agencies. (3-3009)
5. Provide an organized system for information gathering, retrieval, and review, which is part of an overall management, planning, and research process. (3-3104)
6. Ensure program performance is measured on a minimum of two levels, an overall system level and at the program level. A system level review would examine overall performance of Parole/Probation Services and/or Residential Services in achieving their goals/objectives. A program review will examine the effectiveness of a particular program such as the drug court program in the achievement of an immediate objective. (3-3115)

(Rev 12/30/2011)

D. Deputy Director of Residential Services and Deputy Director of Parole/Probation Services.

1. Provide input to the planning and goal development process and support the agency mission and goals. Ensure all levels of staff participate in the development and review of organizational goals, policies, procedures, rules and regulations. Ensure plans and goals are reviewed annually. (3-3006, 3-3007)
2. Collaborate and consult with other criminal justice agencies, community interest groups, human service agencies, and colleges on a continuing basis to enhance formulation and evaluation of organizational policies, procedures, rules, and programs.
